SINGING THE BLUES

Originally Bogan 1384

Opener, Break, Close (Circle)

I never felt more like singing the blues
I never thought I'd ever lose
Men Star Right - Why'd you do me this way
Allemande Left and Weave the ring
I never felt more like crying all night
Everythings wrong; nothing is right
Without you
You've got me singing the blues

Figure

(Heads Square Thru) this is prompted ahead of the stanza

The moon and stars no longer shine
You make a Right Hand Star one time
Heads Star Left inside you do
Meet your corner girl Slide Thru
Square Thru Three Hands and your corner you Swing
Take her hand and Promenade the ring
Without you
You've got me singing the blues
