"SWEET GEORGIA BROWN"

Originally Blue Star 2483

In memory of
ELMER SHEFFIELD

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - ENDING

Come on now, four ladies promenade inside the ring
Run back give your man a swing, I sing
Join up hands and circle now (and do a)
Allemande the corner lady, Weave that old ring
In and out around 'til you meet her again
Swing your girl, Promenade and then
Well the fellas she can't get are the fellas she ain't met
Georgia claimed her, Georgia named her, Sweet Georgia Brown

FIGURE

Head two couples square thru go four hands around
Dosado and get one time around
Swing thru and by the right cast off three quarter
Then a quarter more and the boys trade and turn thru
Allemande new corner, Swing a brand new gal
Promenade her to the old corral
The gals are jealous there's no doubt, still the fellas rave about
There ain't no gal sweet as old, Sweet Georgia Brown

TAG Georgia claimed her, Georgia named her, Sweet Georgia Brown
